ORDER:

The Director of Animal Husbandry, A.P., Hyderabad has informed that the Government have accorded permission to depute (5) in-service Veterinary Assistant Surgeons to study M.V.Sc. commencing from the academic year 1980-81, duly sanctioning study leave, equivalent to half average pay without study allowance, in continuation of Earned leave, at the credit of the individuals, subject to the maximum of (24) months.

2. Keeping in view of the need to utilize specialized services of M.V.Sc. to livestock, the Government have deputed (5) candidates to study M.V.Sc. course with full pay and allowances, but without study allowances during the study period for the year 1985-86 vide G.O. 2nd read above.

3. Likewise, based on the proposals of Director of Animal Husbandry every year Government accorded permission to depute the in-service Veterinary Assistant Surgeons to study M.V.Sc. course in identified fields of disciplines, with full pay and allowances without study allowances, up to the academic year 1997-98.

4. During the year 1998-99, as per the request made by the Department, the Registrar, Acharya N.G. Ranga Agriculture University, Rajendranagar, Hyderabad has increased the number of seats of M.V.Sc course from (5) to (10) and the Government have also permitted the Director of Animal Husbandry to depute (10) candidates to prosecute MVSc course vide G.O. 4th read above and the same has been continued up to the year 2007-08.

5. During the year 2008-09 due to increase of number of seats from 10 to 15, Government have permitted to depute (15) in-service Veterinary Assistant Surgeons to prosecute MVSc course for a period of (2) years vide G.O. 5th read above and also continued the same for the academic year 2009-2010 vide G.O. 6th read above.

6. The Director of Animal Husbandry has further stated that at present (281) Veterinary Hospitals and (22) Veterinary Polyclinics are functioning in the field of Animal Husbandry Department. The Government have introduced the scheme of Pashu Kranthi Pathakam & Jeeva Kranthi Pathakam (C.Ms & P.Ms Packages) wherein thousands of high productive milch animals are distributed to the farmers which are added to the present cattle population available in Andhra Pradesh. The services of the Veterinarians who studied M.V.Sc are very essential in Veterinary Hospitals and Veterinary Polyclinics to deliver specialized service to the Livestock and combat emerging diseases, and there is need to have more qualified technical persons in field. To cater to the above need, the in-service Veterinary Assistant Surgeons in the field need to be deputed every year to M.V.Sc. course to up grade their skills and knowledge.

7. In view of the above, the Director of Animal Husbandry, A.P., Hyderabad has requested to include the study of M.V.Sc. course by the (15) in-service Veterinarians, in the Fundamental Rules as an "Authorized course of instruction as training in Annexure-I by amending the Rule-9.

8. Government after careful examination hereby include the M.V.Sc. courses (the courses as authorized by the Sri Venkateswara Veterinary University, Tirupati) as authorised one under F.R. 9(6)(b)(i) in Annexure-I by taking 15 in-service Veterinary Assistant Surgeons to undergo MVSc course for a period of 24 months in the state of Andhra Pradesh.

9. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance (FR.I) Department vide their U.O.No. 10935/204/FR.I/11, dated: 30-4-2011.
